Las Vegas Attorney Receives International Distinction Dennis Kennedy Recognized By Chambers USA For 8th Consecutive Year

(Las Vegas, Nev.) Las Vegas attorney Dennis Kennedy has been recognized by Chambers USA as a top litigator in Nevada with a “1” ranking in its 2010 guide to the country’s top attorneys. This is Kennedy’s eighth year being recognized in the category of general/commercial litigation.

Chambers USA ranks the leading firms and lawyers in an extensive range of practice areas throughout America. The guide is read by industry-leading companies and organizations throughout the US and worldwide. It is also widely used by firms in all states for referral purposes.

“There is no doubt that Dennis Kennedy is one of the finest litigators in Nevada,” said John Bailey, managing partner of the law firm Bailey Kennedy. “He has worked in Las Vegas for more than 30 years and during that time developed a stellar reputation as one of our nation’s brightest legal minds. Whether representing clients, volunteering with non-profit organizations or mentoring new attorneys, he has always gone beyond what is required to help further his profession and the overall community.”

The research conducted each year for Chambers USA: America’s Leading Lawyers for Business combines 12 months of unbiased and in-depth client interviews with an evaluation of the significant legal achievements of law firms and their lawyers. The rankings and editorial comment about lawyers are independent and objective. Inclusion in this section of the guide is based solely on the research team's findings.
